

Modern Day Slavery & Human Trafficking Policy Statement

Geraud (UK) Limited and its subsidiaries (the "Company") acknowledge the provisions of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within its organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation. The Company is satisfied from its own due diligence that there is no evidence of any modern-day slavery or human trafficking within its own organisation.

As part of the Company's due diligence process into slavery and human trafficking, the supplier approval process incorporates a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier.

The Company acknowledges that goods imported from sources outside the UK and EU are potentially at higher risk of association with slavery and human trafficking. The level of management control for these resources is continually monitored.

The Company will never knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The Company will undertake responsibility for implementing this Policy Statement and its objectives.

Signed

Philip Lamb
Managing Director

Date:-